Law Enforcement Academy Scholarships Available

Doyon Foundation is pleased to announce two $7,300 scholarships are available to Alaska Native students wishing to attend the Law Enforcement Academy at the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Tanana Valley Campus.

The scholarships, which are open to all Alaska Natives, are generously funded by the Alyeska Pipeline Service Company Alaska Native Program. The next academy will be held August 17 - November 13, 2009 in Fairbanks.

To apply, download and complete the application packet located at www.doyonfoundation.com. All applications must be received or postmarked by Wednesday, August 5, 2009.

For more information, visit www.doyonfoundation.com, call 907.459.2050 or 1.800.478.4755 ext. 2050, or e-mail millerd@doyon.com.

Winter 2009 Basic Scholarship Applications Now Available

Applications for Doyon Foundation's basic scholarships for the 2009 winter semester are now available online at www.doyonfoundation.com. Applications are due September 15, 2009. Please note these scholarships are for vocational students only.

(Doyon Foundation's definition of vocational is any student enrolled in a one- to three-year training or associate's degree program.)

The scholarships range from $400 for part-time students to $800 for full-time students. To apply, students must submit:

- A complete application form.
- Proof of academic enrollment.
- Official transcripts.

Students are encouraged to apply for scholarships online. If students do not already have an online account, they should create one at www.doyonfoundation.com/CreateAccount.aspx. This should be done at least seven days in advance of the scholarship application deadline.

Please note that all scholarship applications, including basic, vocational and competitive, will need to be submitted online starting with the November 15, 2009 application deadline for spring 2010 scholarships. Additional information about this change will be provided in the coming months.

For more information, visit www.doyonfoundation.com or contact Doris Miller, scholarship program manager, at 907.459.2050 or millerd@doyon.com.

Doyon Foundation Seeks Administrative Assistant

Doyon Foundation is seeking a full-time administrative assistant. The primary responsibilities of an administrative assistant are to work closely with the CEO to complete administrative duties and provide board support that enables Doyon Foundation to operate in an efficient manner. She/he also works with other Foundation staff to support the Morris Thompson Memorial Golf Classic, the Foundation's scholarship programs, and community relations and fundraising. Interested applicants should submit an application to Mark Holmgren, Doyon Foundation's CEO, at holmgrenm@doyon.com. Click here to view the job description.

Update on 2009 Golf Classic

Doyon Foundation's ninth annual Morris Thompson Memorial Golf Classic was held on June 18 - 19, 2009 at the Chena Bend Golf Course on Fort Wainwright in Fairbanks, Alaska. This fun, annual event benefits the Morris Thompson Scholarship Fund, an endowed fund established by Doyon Foundation to benefit Alaska Native, higher education students studying business management and leadership. For more information on this year's classic, or to view a list of current sponsors or event photos, visit www.doyonfoundation.com.

Foundation Staff Visit RAHI Students at UAF

Doyon Foundation staff visited with Doyon shareholder-students participating in the 2009 Rural Alaska Honors Institute (RAHI) at the University of Alaska Fairbanks in late June. RAHI is a bridging program that assists college-bound students from rural Alaska in making the academic and social transition between high school and college. For more information on RAHI, visit www.uaf.edu/rahi.
