

Foundation Awards $211k in Spring Scholarships

Doyon Foundation is pleased to announce that it has awarded a total of $211,800 in scholarships to 258 students for the spring 2014 semester. The scholarships include 175 $800 scholarships to full-time students, 57 $400 scholarships to part-time students, and 26 competitive scholarships ranging from $2,000 - $7,000.

In addition to the full-time, part-time and competitive scholarships, the Foundation also offers short-term vocational scholarships, advanced college credit scholarships to high school students taking college courses, and scholarships for students to attend the Law Enforcement Academy at the University of Alaska Fairbanks.

The Foundation accepts applications three times per year; the next deadlines are March 15 to apply for basic scholarships for the summer semester, and April 15 to apply for basic and competitive scholarships for the fall 2014 semester.

To qualify for a Doyon Foundation scholarship, applicants must be enrolled to Doyon, Limited or be the child of an original enrollee; be accepted to an accredited college, university, technical or vocational school; and maintain a minimum GPA. Details on scholarship types, eligibility and application instructions are included in the scholarship brochure available on the Foundation website.
