LeAnn Sommer, of Galena, Alaska, is currently attending Fort Lewis College in Durango, Colorado, where she is well on her way to obtaining her bachelor’s degree in business tourism and resort management. With the support of Doyon Foundation, she’ll have her diploma in hand next spring.

“The scholarship means I can get through school comfortably, which allows me to concentrate more on school. It means a great deal to me, and has definitely helped me in many ways,” says the 2008 – 2009 scholarship recipient.

In addition to the financial support she receives from the Doyon Foundation, LeAnn also appreciates the moral support and the connection to Alaska – which is important for the out-of-state student.

“From the beginning of my secondary schooling career, Doyon Foundation has been there through scholarships, schooling tips and keeping me updated about home. Doyon has made a big difference to my whole college career,” she says.
